CORPORATE DONATION GIFT MATCHING PROGRAM

Girls Leading Girls, Inc. is a 501c3 nonprofit organization that trains girls and women in leadership and life skills through soccer with all female coaches and mentors. Annually we serve over 750 girls and employ 50 women coaches.

As a nonprofit, we raise funds annually to support our free after school program serving over 300 girls in low-income public schools in the bay area, 100 scholarships for our club soccer program for girls in financial need, 100 free summer camp spots, monthly training and mentorship for our women coaches.

WHAT ARE MATCHING GIFTS?

Corporate matching gifts are a type of philanthropy in which companies financially match donations that their employees make to nonprofit organizations.

When an employee makes a donation, they'll request the matching gift from their employer, who then makes their own donation. Companies usually match donations at a 1:1 ratio, but some will match at a 2:1, 3:1, or even a 4:1 ratio.

Girls Leading Girls is a 501(c)(3) tax-exempt nonprofit.

WHAT COMPANIES MATCH DONATIONS?

Check with your employer but here's a short list of some companies that provide matching:

Airtable	Genentech
Adobe	Google
Alliant Insurance	Kaiser
Apple	Linkedin
Autodesk	Microsoft
Chase	Nerdwallet
Charles Schwab	Salesforce
Citi Bank	Shopify
Dropbox	PG&E
First Republic Bank	Wells Fargo
Freedom Financial	UC Berkeley
Gap Corporation

WHY DO COMPANIES MATCH DONATIONS?

Companies of all sizes match donations their employees make to nonprofits because it's an easy, structured way for them to support good work in their communities. CSR, or corporate social responsibility, is an important factor in how the public perceives brands and companies these days.

THANK YOU!

Thank you to past families that have contributed corporate gift matches to our organization: Airtable, Adobe, Google, PG&E, Wells Fargo, and Gap!
